

Handouts A–C Answer Keys

Handout A: Voting Rights, Women, and the Nineteenth Amendment Answer Key

1. Accept reasoned answers.
2. Accept reasoned answers.

Handout B: Two Declarations Answer Key

1. Declaration of Sentiments should be labeled as follows:

Introduction: From “When in the course...” through “...such a course.”

Preamble: From “We hold these truths...” through “...let facts be submitted to a candid world.”

Indictment: From “He has never permitted...” through “.....deemed of little account in man...”

Conclusion: “Firmly relying upon the final triumph of the Right and the True...”

Signatures: (the list of signatures)

3. Answers should be reasonable and based on the text. Responses may range from observation (verbatim repetition of words and phrases) to categories (see question 1, above) to comparison and analysis of the sentiments expressed in both documents.
4. Accept reasoned responses. Answers may relate to the willingness of participants to publicly attach their names to a document for which they could receive harsh criticism and which may have an effect on their standing in society.
5. Accept reasoned responses.

Handout C: Suffrage Amendments Answer Key

1. Accept reasoned answers.
